

THE GRAINGER REVIEW

A JOURNAL OF ESSAYS FROM
LONGWOOD UNIVERSITY'S ENGLISH
CLASSES

2006

EDITORS: SHAWN SMITH,
RHONDA BROCK-SERVAIS, AND LARA PLATE

The Grainger Review, the Longwood English program's journal of student essays, provides students with examples of model essays written in Longwood's General Education English classes, as well as classes for the English major, including the Senior Seminar.

To purchase a copy of The Grainger Review for $4.00, take this flyer to the Cashiering office in Lancaster and tell them you want to buy a copy. After you pay the fee, you can present the receipt to Lisa Seamster in the main office of the English department (Grainger 101), who will give you a copy.

For more information on The Grainger Review, contact Dr. Smith at: smithsb@longwood.edu.